FROM THE PASTOR

Last week, we celebrated as a community, the Feast Day of our Patron, St. Thomas More. It was a wonderful event with a beautiful liturgy and a picnic of a vast array of foods made by so many parishioners. During the evening festivities, a great number of the more than 150 adults, youth and children present told me that this was one of the best picnics they had ever attended!

In addition to the food and fellowship, we were blessed to have, in addition to perfect weather for an outdoor gathering, wonderful live music at the Pavilion and games for children of all ages across the STMUP property.

THANKS to one and all who helped in so many ways recognize the faith and example of our patron by helping to make the evening such a success!

SPECIAL thanks too, to those who assisted in recognizing the faithful ministry of Patty DeBiasio. Patty will write her own words of reflection in next weekend's bulletin, but I know that she was greatly moved by the kind words and hugs, gifts, blessings and gratitude expressed to her and her husband Mike by those who attended the Feast Day Mass and Picnic.

St. Thomas More (the person) has his integrity and steadfast trust in God's care by St. Thomas More (the parish) in so many ways.

On behalf of the entire parish staff I want to express my thanks to all who joyfully participate in building the Kingdom at STMUP and sharing the Good News with hope and enthusiasm.

We are blessed indeed! Fr. Willie

Second Collection this Weekend - Peter's Pence & the Support of the Holy See

The Peter's Pence Collection allows the pope to respond quickly to those who face oppression, natural disasters, war and disease. U.S. Catholics traditionally have been among the most generous donors to this collection.

Last year, at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York, Pope Benedict XVI called on U.S. Catholics to continue this tradition of solidarity.

In the finest traditions of the church in this country, may you also be the first friend of the poor, the homeless, the stranger, the sick and all who suffer. Act as beacons of hope, casting the light of Christ upon the world. Pope Benedict XVI

Your generous support of this annual collection helps make an impact in the lives of our sisters and brothers who suffer in so many ways and for so many reasons around the world.
