Needed: "Donut Ministers"

We are seeking some assistance from volunteers to help us by picking up donuts on Sunday mornings at Giant Eagle and then delivering them to the Church Kitchen by 9:30 AM.

If we have several (families, couples, individuals) volunteers to do this, we can create a schedule (as we do in other ministries) and the folks who share in this task would only have to help us once a month or every six weeks. Please call Bill Mrozowski at 724.463.2277, ext. 120 to volunteer for this truly "sweet role"!

If you have a concern about sexual abuse of a child or young person by anyone in a parish or diocesan position - clergy, volunteer or paid staff - please contact Bishop Brandt's delegate for matters of sexual misconduct. He may be reached at 724.837.0901, extension 221.

FROM THE PASTOR

I write this week's reflection in Detroit, Michigan where Lynne Jones and I are attending the 2010 NPM (National Association of Pastoral Musicians) Convention. Hollie Uccellini, a member of St. Thomas More and staff member of Our Lady of Grace Parish, Greensburg, is also here as well as she is very involved in this national organization that is a wonderful resource for those striving to develop and maintain a vibrant music ministry in the parish setting.

The theme of this year's event is Hope & Harmony and is emphasizing that in these challenging times, Liturgy is a profound source of hope to those facing any number of hardships.

I have been deeply inspired by those attending this convention. They come from across the United States and Canada seeking insights that can help them return to their parishes and improve worship and prayer experiences so that the faithful can be better equipped to live their faith and walk in harmony with Christ.

Undoubtedly we are blessed at St. Thomas More University Parish with a music ministry that inspires and energizes those who come to worship here. This does not simply "happen."

I want to take this opportunity to thank Lynne Jones and Erin Knepper, our accompanists, instrumentalists, choir members and anyone else who shares their time and talent to build and enhance our music program that is an AMAZING blessing to so many who gather at STMUP to celebrate the Eucharist and praise God with uplifted hearts and voices! Have a GREAT week and God bless! Fr. Willie
